Jesus went across the Sea of Galilee. A large crowd followed him, because they saw the signs he was performing on the sick.

Let all your works
give you
thanks,
O
LORD,
and let your faithful
ones bless
you.

Let them
discourse of the glory of your
kingdom
and speak of your might.
—Psalm
145:10-11

Jesus went up on the mountain, and there he sat down with his disciples. "Where can we buy enough food for them to eat?"

One of his disciples, Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, said to him, "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?"

Jesus said, "Have the people recline." Now there was a great deal of grass in that place. So the men reclined, about five thousand in number. Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed them to those who were reclining . . .
