From the desk of Fr. Paul:

Happy Easter!

Christ is risen! He is risen indeed!

May the joy of the risen Lord fill your hearts and your homes. The empty tomb is proof of Christ's victory in our world and in our lives. This is not a fairytale and not a symbol, it is the reality of Christ alive! I am reminded of the beautiful Scripture verse John 10:10, "A thief comes only to steal, slaughter and destroy. But I came that they might have life, and have it more abundantly!"

This is something for all of us to reflect on this Easter season. What does it mean to have abundant life? Have you ever seen the spark in someone's eye when they come to a deeper realization of their faith or they come to a deeper relationship with Christ? This is the palpable joy and hope that is found in an abundant life in Christ. Their eyes were opened to a renewed life in Christ. After the resurrection, Jesus encountered two disciples on their way to Emmaus. While on the way, Jesus opened up the Scriptures to them revealing what had to take place in order for the Scriptures to be fulfilled. Yet, the disciples did not recognize Him. It was not until the breaking of the bread where it says that "their eyes were opened and they recognized Him." (Luke 24:31) They received abundant life when they recognized Jesus, so much so that they immediately returned to Jerusalem to share the news with the apostles.

In our Catholic Neighbors in Faith Family of Parishes, I pray that this will be a season of abundant life. Like the two apostles, we may not recognize Him, yet Jesus is alive and in our midst. As we journey together on the road with Jesus, we will recognize Him in the breaking of the bread. The breaking of the bread refers to the Eucharist, which is twofold: recognizing Jesus within the true presence of Christ in the Eucharist and also within our Communion with the whole Church as a Body of Christ.

We have great spiritual events to look forward to in our family of parishes. This week, we will be praying the Divine Mercy Novena everyday at Sacred Heart at 3pm from April 1st through April 7th, concluding on Divine Mercy Sunday. At the Hour of Mercy at 3pm, we will have Adoration, Divine Mercy Chaplet and Novena Prayers and various times available for Confession. Please check the bulletin for more details. All are welcome!

As we celebrate the Easter Season, let us enter into the abundant life that Jesus provides for us through the Sacraments and the communal life of our family of parishes.

We congratulate all of our RCIA catechumens and candidates who have received the Sacraments for the first time and are welcomed into our Catholic Church. They are a visible sign of abundant life.

TEENAGERS – YOU'RE INVITED . . .

Young people in grades 8-12 are invited to Making Connections: A Day for Catholic Teens on Sun., April 28th from 12-5pm at Villa Maria College in Buffalo! Gather with teenagers from across the Diocese of Buffalo for an interactive day with national speaker and musician

Vallimar Jansen! Vallimar's unique blend of proclamation, reflection, storytelling, music, movement, insights and wisdom propels faith to new heights. The day concludes with Mass with Bishop Michael Fisher.

Teens have the choice of different breakout topics and service activities during the event. The cost is $20 and includes lunch. For more information or to register, visit <https://tinyurl.com/makingconnections716>.

This will be an experience you won't want to miss!

Bible Study – Beginning April 25th

All are invited to join a Bible study entitled "Wisdom: God's Vision for Your Life". It is an 8-week program of biblical wisdom literature including the books of Wisdom, Sirach, Proverbs and Ecclesiastes, supplemented by excerpts from The Catechism of the Catholic Church. The theme is how to apply God's revealed Wisdom to our daily lives and is guided by scholars from Ascension Press via video presentations. It will run from April 25th to June 13th on consecutive Thursday nights from 7 to 8:30 pm in the church hall on the lower level of Saints Peter and Paul Church. The cost is $20 for a journal which has assigned readings, discussion questions and explanatory notes. To enroll, please call the church office at 716-487-0125 by April 11th so we can order the appropriate number of books.

FUNERAL ALTAR SERVERS NEEDED

We are still looking for a few more individuals to assist at funeral masses that may be scheduled at our churches any day Monday thru Saturday, generally at 10am. Anyone interested in becoming a Funeral Altar Server in our family of parishes is asked to contact Doris at the central office, 716.487.0125. Training will be provided. This is a great service to the church and a corporal work of mercy.

Nice Weather = Cookouts!!

A brand-new grill sure would make those warm spring and summer gatherings a lot less stressful! Members of the Our Lady of Loreto Holy Name Society are currently selling tickets for a brand-new Weber Portable Gas Grill! The tickets are only $10 (while they last!) The drawing date is Sunday May 19th directly after 10am Mass. You can get your ticket from any of the OLL Holy Name Society members, stopping by the central office of Catholic Neighbors in Faith, or by contacting Andy Kutchke, at (716)397-4710 to help you in purchasing a ticket. Thank you for your support!

DONATIONS STILL NEEDED...

Ss. Peter & Paul Church and St. James Church are still in need of your help for two very important upgrades.

1) The Rosetta Window at the back of the church at Ss. Peter & Paul is in need of major repairs. We are asking for your help in trying to ensure that this beautiful window be restored and made structurally sound again.

2) St. James Church and Rectory are in need of foundation masonry repairs. Any donations would be tax deductible. If you have any questions or would like more information, don't hesitate to contact the rectory.

Saint of the Week

THE EASTER OCTAVE

Easter Sunday – The First Sunday of Easter

Eastertime lasts fifty days: seven weeks of seven days (seven equals Biblical perfection) plus one day: perfection plus! Like an eight-day Jewish wedding, or a child who can't bear to let go of Christmas, birthdays, and school vacation, the Church celebrates the Easter Octave: "the marriage of heaven and earth," as the Vigil calls Jesus' resurrection; our new members' baptismal rebirth; our renewal of baptismal vows; our hearts' "divine vacation" (Latin vacare, "to be empty"), newfound time and space for love of God and neighbor. Make home an Easter garden! Adorn the dining table with a pillar candle (your "paschal candle"), a bowl full of water (ideally, from the parish's baptismal font), a vase of flowers or bowl of sprouting grain with Easter eggs. Even non-singers can handle the three-fold Gospel Alleluia! Let that be your grace before meals, perhaps with a prayer recalling Emmaus (Luke 24:13-35): "Be known to us, Risen Lord Jesus, as you were to the first disciples, in your word, in the breaking of bread, and in everyone we meet."

Reflections

God's Divine Plan

"God, infinitely perfect and blessed in himself, in a plan of sheer goodness, freely created man to make him share in his own blessed life. For this reason, at every time and in every place, God draws close to man. He calls man to seek him, to know him, to love him with all his strength. He calls together all men, scattered and divided by sin, into the unity of his family, the Church. To accomplish this, when the fullness of time had come, God sent his Son as Redeemer and Saviour. In his Son and through him, he invites men to become, in the Holy Spirit, his adopted children and thus heirs of his blessed life." -CCC 1

This is the first paragraph from the catechism and I think it perfectly sums up what we celebrate today on this beautiful Easter morning. In today's first reading we hear the entire Gospel story being preached by Peter. This is the same Peter who denied Jesus three times just a few days before, and who we read about in the Gospel as not fully understanding what Christ was doing until he saw the empty tomb. Peter then knew the plans of God and could easily and succinctly proclaim them to all people.

The goal of the Lenten season is to bring us to a point where we can realize that our destiny is to share in the divine life of God. This isn't just a vague sentimental idea or ambiguous theology, but it is the entire point of our lives. Jesus loved you enough to die on a tree in order that you might receive adoption as his beloved. It seems simple enough, but do we really grasp the depth of the meaning? Easter morning is the good news that not only were you bought back at a price, but that the death of God was not the end. Rather, it was just the beginning. Christ rising from the dead defeated sin and death once and for all and claims us back as adopted children.

This is why Easter is the most important feast in our liturgical calendar. And God wants us to feast. We might be a little rusty after 40 days of fasting, but God wants us to pull out all the stops. I recommend making the nicest dinner you can within your means and celebrate as a family what Christ has done in conquering sin and death. The Easter egg hunts are fun and everybody likes baked ham, but let's not forget the reason for this season. That God desired for you to be saved and come to share in his divine life. This is enough to make even the worst of sinners or hardened criminals rejoice. As John Paul II said often, "We are an Easter people, and Hallelujah is our song." Now go feast!

From all of us here at Diocesan, God bless!

Easter Sunday

A Good Day to Die

Do you remember your own baptism? I wish I could; I was baptized as an infant, just a few days old. I envy the adults I have seen baptized at the Easter Vigil. Hopefully, they experience what St. Paul says in the epistle we hear at the Vigil. For Paul, Baptism is a sign of dying and rising to new life. Sounds like Easter to me. So when Jesus died, he rose from the dead. Is Paul telling us that we will rise from the dead, too?

Yes, but that is not his main point. If all we think about is our physical death, and hope we go to heaven afterwards, we're missing the point. The new life starts with our baptism, not just our physical death. That's why Paul says things like, "our old self was crucified" or "sinful body done away with...." (Rom 6:6) Baptism gives us a new life NOW. The water is both cleansing and a sign of dying (symbolic drowning) that help us see we are free from sin. We are dead to sin when we begin to live in Christ. The fictional Klingons have a saying "today is a good day to die" to express courage in battle. But real Christians might say that Easter is a good day to die: we have died to sin and begun a new life in Christ.

How do we experience this dying to sin? First, we identify the sinful areas of our life. Do I watch movies, video games, or TV shows that encourage promiscuity, lying, revenge, hatred or selfishness? What sins do I confess repeatedly and what can I do to avoid them?

Next we look for ways to act differently: Can I spend more time with friends/relatives who are examples of love? Can I spend less time entertaining myself and more time in prayer? Instead of complaining about what is wrong with the world, can I find ways to make it better? (If not the world, then my community or family.) These are a few of the ways we begin our new life in Christ.
